

Expense Policy

Document ID: NT-FIN-003 | Version: 1.0 | Effective: 01 January 2026

Owner: Finance | Classification: Internal Use

1. Purpose

This policy defines what qualifies as a business expense, standard limits, documentation requirements, approval requirements, and prohibited expenses.

2. Business Expense Definition

A business expense must have a legitimate business purpose and must be reasonable, authorized, appropriately documented, and incurred for company business.

3. Expense Categories

- Travel
- Hotel
- Food
- Transportation
- Office Supplies
- Training
- Professional Subscription

4. Standard Limits

Category	Limit / Requirement
Business meals	INR 1,000 per person
Office supplies	INR 5,000 per purchase
Professional subscriptions	Prior approval required
Travel and hotel	Subject to Travel Policy

5. Documentation

Expense documentation should identify the vendor, date, amount, and nature of the expense. Additional supporting information may be required depending on the category.

6. Submission Deadline

Expenses should normally be submitted within 15 days of the expense date.

7. Approval

The standard approval flow is Reporting Manager → Department Head → Finance, subject to the expense type and applicable workflow.

8. Prohibited Expenses

- Personal purchases
- Personal entertainment
- Alcohol
- Fines and penalties
- Unauthorized software
- Personal subscriptions
- Family expenses
- Personal travel

9. Duplicate Expenses

Employees must not submit duplicate expenses or claim the same expense through multiple reimbursement processes.

10. Example

An employee attends a customer meeting involving three participants and incurs a business meal expense of INR 3,200. The applicable per-person limit and participant count should be checked against the expense documentation and approval requirements before reimbursement.

11. Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is the standard business meal limit?

A: INR 1,000 per person.

Q: Do professional subscriptions require approval?

A: Yes. Prior approval is required.

Q: How quickly should expenses be submitted?

A: Normally within 15 days of the expense date.