

Work From Home Policy

Document ID: NT-HR-003 | Version: 1.0 | Effective: 01 January 2026

Owner: Human Resources | Classification: Internal Use

1. Purpose

This policy defines the conditions under which eligible employees may work from home and the responsibilities that apply during remote work.

2. WFH Allowance

Eligible employees may work from home for up to 8 days per calendar month, subject to manager approval and business requirements.

The 8-day limit is a maximum allowance and is not an automatic entitlement.

3. Eligibility

- Role and job responsibilities
- Team and project requirements
- Manager approval
- Business continuity needs
- Operational or customer requirements

4. Approval

Employees should obtain approval before working from home. Managers may require office presence when business, project, collaboration, customer, or operational needs require it.

5. Working Hours

The standard working hours remain 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Monday through Friday, unless another approved schedule applies.

6. Employee Responsibilities

- Attend required meetings.
- Remain reachable through approved communication channels.
- Maintain a suitable workspace.
- Complete assigned work and meet agreed deadlines.
- Protect company information and equipment.

7. Security Requirements

- Use approved company devices and systems.
- Protect passwords and authentication credentials.

- Do not share company devices with unauthorized people.
- Use approved systems for company information.
- Follow the IT and Information Security Policies.

8. WFH and Leave

The same day cannot be recorded as both leave and work from home.

9. Example

If an employee has already used 6 WFH days in a month, the employee may request up to 2 additional WFH days, subject to approval and business requirements.
