Owner: Human Resources | Classification: Internal Use

1. Purpose

This policy explains the leave categories available to eligible employees, basic entitlement, request procedures, approval considerations, and leave balance rules.

2. Leave Entitlement

Leave Type	Annual Entitlement	Typical Use
Casual Leave	12 days	Short personal or planned absences
Earned Leave	18 days	Planned vacation or extended leave
Sick Leave	12 days	Illness or health-related absence

3. Casual Leave

Employees may use up to 12 casual leave days per calendar year, subject to eligibility, approval, and applicable company rules.

4. Earned Leave

Employees may use up to 18 earned leave days per calendar year. Planned earned leave should normally be requested at least 2 working days before the intended absence.

5. Sick Leave

Employees may use up to 12 sick leave days per calendar year for illness or health-related absence, subject to applicable procedures.

6. Leave Request and Approval

- Submit the leave request through the approved company process.
- Provide the dates and type of leave requested.
- Managers consider team availability, project deadlines, business requirements, and operational continuity.
- Approval of a leave request is separate from the employee's available leave balance.
- An available balance does not automatically guarantee approval.

7. Unplanned Absence

If an employee cannot report to work unexpectedly, the employee should notify the reporting manager as soon as reasonably possible and complete the required leave process afterward.

8. Half-Day Leave

Where the leave system supports half-day leave, a half-day is recorded as 0.5 leave day.

9. Carry Forward

Unused earned leave may be carried forward according to applicable company rules. Casual and sick leave generally do not carry forward unless specifically approved or required by applicable law.

10. Example

An employee has 8 casual leave days, 12 earned leave days, and 10 sick leave days remaining. If the employee plans a five-day vacation, the employee may request five earned leave days, subject to manager approval and business requirements.
