

Employee Reimbursement Policy

Document ID: NT-FIN-002 | Version: 1.0 | Effective: 01 January 2026

Owner: Finance | Classification: Internal Use

1. Purpose

This policy defines eligible employee reimbursements, documentation requirements, approval flow, expense limits, and non-reimbursable expenses.

2. Eligible Expenses

- Approved business travel
- Customer meetings
- Approved business meals
- Office supplies
- Approved professional subscriptions
- Business communication
- Other expenses specifically approved for business use

3. Employee Responsibility

- The expense must have a legitimate business purpose.
- The amount should be reasonable.
- Required receipts and supporting documents must be retained.
- The claim must be submitted within the applicable deadline.
- Required manager or department approvals must be obtained.

4. Submission Deadline

Reimbursement claims should normally be submitted within 15 days of the expense or applicable business event.

5. Receipt Information

Where a receipt is required, it should clearly show the vendor, date, amount, and description or nature of the expense.

6. Approval Flow

The standard approval sequence is Reporting Manager → Department Head → Finance, subject to the expense type and company workflow.

7. Standard Limits

Expense Category	Standard Limit
Business meal	INR 1,000 per person

Expense Category	Standard Limit
Local business transportation	INR 1,500 per day
Office supplies	INR 5,000 per purchase
Professional subscription	Prior approval required

8. Non-Reimbursable Expenses

- Personal purchases
- Personal entertainment
- Fines and penalties
- Unauthorized subscriptions
- Expenses for family members
- Personal travel
- Unapproved upgrades

9. Duplicate Claims

Employees must not submit the same expense more than once or claim an expense that has already been reimbursed through another process.

10. Finance Review

Finance reviews claims for completeness, eligibility, documentation, approval, and compliance with applicable limits.

11. Example

An employee purchases approved office supplies costing INR 3,500. The standard office-supply limit is INR 5,000 per purchase. The expense may be reimbursable if it is business-related, authorized, properly documented, and submitted within the required period.

12. Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is the business meal limit?

A: INR 1,000 per person.

Q: What is the office supplies limit?

A: INR 5,000 per purchase.

Q: How long do I have to submit a reimbursement claim?

A: Normally 15 days from the expense or applicable business event.